RETAILER

The Australian Retailer represents Australia's thriving and evolving independent retail sector, comprising grocery, produce, deli, speciality, health and organic stores throughout Australia.

Each issue, 6,325 copies are distributed to major independent food retailers and distributors throughout Australia, including all IGA, Foodworks, SPAR, Friendly Grocer, Foodland, Drakes and Go Vita stores, as well as smaller independent stores. In addition to our printed magazine we also distribute 965 digital magazines to those people, who prefer to have the magazine sent to them in a digital format; our digital magazine on average achieves page views of 24,759 per issue.

With the help of reality television, healthy lifestyle awareness and the rise of the home chef, more Australians want to prepare gourmet meals at home for friends and family. The Australian Retailer prides itself on finding a fresh approach to the retail sector that caters to the modern Australian, which is displayed in our colourful feature articles and expert contributions. We celebrate the local stories, and the gourmet, fresh, organic and specialty offerings that set the independent apart from its mainstream rivals.

The Australian Retailer seeks to inform all levels of retail, from storeowners and franchisees to top-tier executives and decision-makers, about the trends and consumer choices that shape the industry, as well as keeping them abreast of the great work of their peers.

By providing high-quality content within its vibrant pages, advertisers and readers alike have come to know and trust The Australian Retailer to keep them informed and ahead of the game.
